President's Corner

Dear Members,

It's amazing to think that when we printed our last newsletter, we had no idea what the next few months would bring. We were looking forward to celebrating our 80th anniversary with parties in our branches. We were expecting to hear vacation stories from members and coworkers. We were planning to conduct business as usual throughout the spring and summer. Instead, we were purchasing face masks, installing plexiglass shields, and conducting the majority of our business remotely.

This was not the spring and summer we expected, and we understand that many of our members are dealing with stress and uncertainty. However, you can be sure of one thing: South Jersey Federal Credit Union continues to serve our members and the community. Although safety protocols required some changes to our daily operations, we remained available to serve our members in person at some locations, as well as through mobile banking, internet banking, telephone banking, and our locally staffed call center. From providing crisis loans to offering loan payment deferment options, SJFCU took very proactive steps to help members affected by the pandemic.

In July, we re-opened all of our branches with new safety measures, as you'll see from the photos in this issue. We continue to serve members with money-saving financial products, such as our free checking account, credit builder loans, and other lending products featured in this newsletter. Historically low mortgage rates give members a great opportunity to save money with a new mortgage or refinance. If you're trying to establish or re-establish your credit, our article on credit builder loans offers important information about the benefits of this product.

We continue to serve the community, supporting the organizations that have a positive impact on the world around us. In the past six months, we've sponsored a forum on healthy workforces, provided the financing for the purchase of Gloucester County Habitat for Humanity's 47th home, donated $5,000 toward the construction of Habitat's 52nd home, and awarded $13,300 in scholarships to deserving graduates. We were happy to acknowledge the winners of our 2019 Chairman's Awards and honored to be recognized at Acenda Healthcare's Circle of Impact Awards for our charitable efforts.

In the blink of an eye, Halloween will kick off the 2020 holiday season, so in this issue of Making Change, we've included some creative ideas for Halloween and Thanksgiving, as well as tips to save money while holiday shopping. Our article on financing a college education offers useful information on loans, grants, scholarships, work-study, and our unique tuition rewards program.

On behalf of all of us at South Jersey Federal Credit Union, I wish you and yours a safe and healthy fall and winter. We appreciate your loyalty and support as we work through any challenges that come our way to continue providing quality financial solutions, world-class service, and social commitment.

Yours truly,

Welcome Back TO OUR Branches

As a precautionary measure in response to COVID-19, beginning in March, South Jersey Federal Credit Union closed some branches and offered limited hours in others. We are happy to announce that as of July 13, all of our branches are open during regular banking hours for basic teller transactions. As you can see from these photographs, we've instituted safety measures, including plexiglass barriers, face masks for all employees and members, and social distancing requirements.

Although SJFCU was always available to members with mobile banking, telephone banking, our locally staffed call center, and website chat feature, we were excited to greet members face-to-face again. You may not be able to tell, but trust us when we tell you that our SJFCU team members are smiling beneath those masks!

EXPANDED BRANCH HOURS

located in the Local 19 business center, is now open Monday through Friday from 9 am to 4 pm.

TUITION TIPS:

Options for Funding a College Education

According to EducationData.org, over the past three decades, the cost to attend college has increased almost 8 times faster than wages, leaving families wondering how they will fund a college education without incurring a crippling amount of debt. Whether you have an elementary school student or a high school junior who has begun the college search process, understanding the options for paying college expenses can help you develop a realistic plan for your child's educational goals and your financial goals. Potential sources of financial aid include:

FEDERAL GRANTS - Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grants, and Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grants are usually based on financial need and do not have to be repaid.

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) becomes available on October 1 each year. Complete and submit it, even if you don't think you'll qualify for federal aid. Some colleges use the FAFSA to determine eligibility for their own grants and scholarships.

SCHOLARSHIPS - Many nonprofit and private organizations offer scholarships based on academic merit, talent, a particular area of study, or financial need. For instance, SJFCU awarded $6,300 in scholarships to individual students and additionally contributed another $7,000 to area high schools for scholarships. The U.S. Department of Labor offers a free scholarship search tool at CareerOneStop.org.

WORK-STUDY - The federal work-study program provides part-time jobs for college students to earn money to help pay educational expenses.

STUDENT LOANS - Student loans can come from the federal government, from private sources such as a bank or financial institution, or from other organizations. Loans offered by the Federal Government – Direct Subsidized Loans, which are based on need, and Direct Unsubsidized Loans, which are not based on need – offer a fixed interest rate which is usually lower than that of private loans.

For more information on college financing options, visit StudentAid.gov.

SJFCU Tuition Rewards Program

SJFCU's Tuition Rewards Program is an easy way to start earning funds for college. When you enroll in the program, you'll earn points totaling five percent of your deposit account balances each year. Those points can be used to offset tuition through guaranteed scholarships at over 400 participating private colleges. You can designate a child, grandchild, or other family member to receive your points. The earlier you join, the more you can save. To learn more about the program, visit SouthJerseyFCU.com/TuitionRewards.

PRODUCT SPOTLIGHT:

CREDIT BUILDER LOANS

Whether you're interested in establishing credit or seeking to rebuild a better credit history, a credit builder loan may help. We've broken down the basics of this loan product to help you determine whether a credit builder loan is a worthwhile option for you:

BUILD CREDIT WHILE SAVING

If you're approved for a credit builder loan, SJFCU will loan you an amount between $500 and $2,500. There is a $35 application fee, and proof of income or a cosigner with proof of income is required. Unlike other loans, which result in the borrower receiving the money right away, SJFCU deposits your funds into a special interest-bearing savings account.

You make monthly payments until the loan is paid with a low interest rate that is established during the application process. When the loan is paid in full – 6 to 24 months after the start of the loan – you have access to all the money in the special savings account, and SJFCU provides a good report to the credit bureaus.

CREDIT BUILDER LOAN BENEFITS:

- Members who have never borrowed can establish a credit score
- Members with lower credit scores can improve their repayment history
- Members who participate have the chance to increase their savings balances
- The cost of the loan interest is partially offset by the interest your savings account earns

To learn more about credit builder loans at SJFCU or to start the application process, visit the "Personal Loans" section of SouthJerseyFCU.com.

In pre-pandemic February, SJFCU was the presenting Sponsor of the Cape May County Regional Chamber of Commerce “Building a Healthier Business Community Forum” in conjunction with the Cape Regional Foundation. Attendees learned how Adverse Childhood Experiences have a direct impact on long-term workforce development.

SJFCU joined Cape Regional Foundation, Cape May County business leaders and public officials at the “Building a Healthier Business Community Forum.”

SJFCU COO Daniel Sulpizio, President of the Gloucester County Habitat for Humanity Board of Directors, joined local officials and Habitat staff to congratulate the owners of this new home in Glassboro.

HABITATION CEREMONY #47

GROUNDBREAKING #52

On July 20, SJFCU Chief Executive Officer Ernest Huggard and Chief Operating Officer Daniel Sulpizio attended a groundbreaking ceremony for the 52nd home built and purchased through Gloucester County Habitat for Humanity. SJFCU made a $5,000 donation toward the construction of the home.

Scott Graboyes, Construction Mgr. for Gloucester County Habitat for Humanity; Ernest Huggard, SJFCU CEO; Daniel Sulpizio, SJFCU COO; and Anthony Isabella, Exec. Dir. of Gloucester County Habitat for Humanity.

Stress-Free Shopping: A Guide to Saving Money this Holiday Season

Preparing: MAKE A PLAN AND STICK TO IT

Many of us don't want to think about shopping until Black Friday (or later), but it's best to start early with a list and a budget. Buy items as you see them on sale, either online or in the store. You'll spread out the expense and have less work to do in December.

Giving: GO HOMEMADE

Rather than searching the mall for the perfect item, consider making gifts. From DIY sugar scrubs to hot cocoa kits, there are a number of unique and cost-effective homemade gift options. If you have time or talent to give, a coupon promising a home repair, car wash, home-cooked gourmet meal or other service could also delight the recipient, while helping you cut costs.

Wrapping: THINK OUTSIDE THE BOX

Do you have old paper maps that you haven't needed since you started using GPS? Just add a bow or a silhouette of Santa's sleigh for a unique and colorful giftwrap. Or use plain brown paper or a recycled paper bag for a rustic, eco-friendly look. And there's no need to buy gift tags if you write the recipients' name directly on the wrapped gift with a colorful marker.

Shopping Made Simple:

Want to give the perfect gift without breaking your budget? SJFCU's reloadable Visa® Prepaid Card is the answer.

THE RELOADABLE VISA® PREPAID CARD

- Stick to your budget by purchasing one for yourself and loading it with the amount you intend to spend on holiday shopping.
- Simplify your shopping by giving prepaid cards as gifts. Perfect for anyone on your "nice" list, it's accepted anywhere Visa® is accepted.

Holiday Food Hacks

From carving jack-o'-lanterns to carving Thanksgiving turkeys, we prepare a number of special foods throughout the fall and winter. If you're tempted to throw out the flesh of a pumpkin or if you can't bring yourself to eat another turkey sandwich, these recipes will give new life to your holiday leftovers – and help you save money.

HALLOWEEN: HOMEMADE PUMPKIN SPICE LATTE

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tablespoons pumpkin purée (after removing the seeds, blend pumpkin flesh in a food processor or blender until smooth)
- 1/2 teaspoon pumpkin pie spice, plus more for garnish
- 1 dash of freshly ground black pepper
- 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
- 2 tablespoons vanilla extract
- 2 cups whole milk
- 1/4 cup espresso or 1/3 to cup strong coffee
- 1/4 cup cold heavy cream, whipped into firm peaks

DIRECTIONS

1. Place the pumpkin purée, pumpkin pie spice, and a dash of black pepper in a small saucepan over medium heat and cook, stirring constantly, until hot, about 2 minutes.
2. Add the sugar and stir until the mixture becomes a bubbly syrup.
3. Whisk in the milk and vanilla and warm gently, stirring often and watching carefully to make sure it doesn't boil over.
4. Blend the mixture with a hand blender or in a traditional blender (hold the lid down tightly with a towel) until frothy.
5. Divide the espresso or coffee between 2 mugs. Add the frothed pumpkin and milk mixture.
6. Top with whipped cream and a sprinkle of pumpkin pie spice, cinnamon or nutmeg.

PRUDENT PUMPKIN PURCHASES

Buy your pumpkins at a roadside stand, rather than a supermarket. Also, avoid carving your jack-o'-lantern too early to avoid having to buy another before Halloween.

THANKSGIVING: TURKEY CHILI

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 1 medium onion, diced
- 1 green bell pepper, diced
- 1 small jalapeno, seeded and minced
- 2 cloves garlic, chopped
- 1/4 cup chili powder
- 1 tablespoon ground cumin
- 1 tablespoon dried oregano
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 3 to 4 cups leftover roasted turkey, chopped or pulled into 3/4-inch pieces
- 1 28-ounce can fire-roasted diced tomatoes
- 2 cups low-sodium chicken broth
- 2 15-ounce cans pinto beans
- Leftover mashed potatoes or cooked rice, for serving
- Sour cream and chopped scallion, for serving

DIRECTIONS

1. Heat the oil in a large pot or Dutch oven over medium heat. Add the onion and bell pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until the vegetables are soft, about 6 minutes. Stir in the jalapeno and garlic and cook until they soften slightly, about 1 minute.
2. Stir in the chili powder, oregano, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a few grinds of pepper. Add the turkey and stir until well coated in the spices.
3. Pour in the tomatoes and chicken broth and stir well, scraping pan.
4. Bring the mixture to a simmer on medium-low and cook, uncovered, until the liquid has reduced a few inches and the chili has thickened, about 1 hour.
5. Drain and rinse one can of the beans; leave the bean liquid in the second can. Add the beans and reserved bean liquid to the pot and heat until warmed through, about 10 minutes.
6. Season to taste with salt and pepper, and serve over potatoes or rice with a dollop of sour cream and sprinkle of chopped scallions.

THRIFTY THANKSGIVING

Frozen turkeys are less expensive than fresh ones. Just be sure to allow plenty of time (24 hours for every 4-5 pounds) for your turkey to thaw!
